CALL FOR APPLICANTS FOR FACULTY POSITIONS

The UP Baguio Institute of Management seeks applicants for faculty positions in Management, Business Administration, and Economics to further excellence in the University and offer varied perspectives and ways of learning to our students in the Bachelor of Science in Management Economics (BSME) and Master of Management (MM) Programs.

We are most interested in applicants with teaching experience, industry practice and research track record. Holders of graduate degrees are encouraged to apply, however PhD holders may be given priority.

We expect candidates to collaborate with the faculty and mentor students with diverse interests. Qualified applicants will be offered tenure-track positions.
